your dream ranch

Visualize your own private ranch, in the heart of the Patagonian Andes. CondorNest at Campo Tres Monjas is situated in a high grass meadow overlooking the unparalleled Futaleufú river valley, the beauty of this breathtaking location goes beyond the imagination. The Tres Monjas peaks stand guard above, while the Rio Azul, Las Cruces Creek, and Rio Futaleufú converge at your private beach below. A network of trails takes you to miles of world class fly fishing outside your front door. These same paths are excellent for hiking, jogging, horseback riding, and mountain biking. Nearby lakes, and the gentle Rio Espolon allow for an introduction to kayaking. And of course the legendary rafting on the Futaleufú is waiting. Horses and all Adventure equipment are provided.

A foot trail crossing a swinging foot bridge leads you on a fifteen minute walk to the nearest road where our vehicle and driver are ready to take you to desired adventure activities in the valley. Supplies and your baggage are brought to the ranch from this point by ox cart. Your cook and your guides walk in and out every day at the hour of your request leaving you with the maximum flexibility and privacy. Walkie talkies provide communication and the ultimate in room service. A satellite phone is available at an extra charge.

The cabins are constructed from native wood found on the property. It has manio hardwood floors, immense windows to enjoy the amazing view of the surrounding valley, wood powered heating and cooking, hot running water, and solar powered electricity. The river rock floor of the kitchen, outside porch, organic greenhouse with fresh vegetables, sweet mountain spring water, a shower in a tree, and a outhouse with view all accent the simple natural elegance of the cabins.

This is an escape from the non-stop hustle and bustle of everyday life. You will find yourself in a personal paradise of rolling hills, sharp, glaciated Andean peaks, and lush river valleys.

The CondorNest is a unique setting and a experience in living simply for the family, couple, artist, or celebrity looking to get away from it all, and be inspired by nature's majesty. Accommodates from 2-8 people. Minimum stay one week.
